
SCOTCH BAR – NEW ARRIVALS

WHISKY OF THE MONTH

The Glenlivet Code 30 (1oz)

Speyside, 48%

A single malt for whisky sleuths. Glenlivet have created Code, a limited edition that follows Alpha and Cipher, to encourage people to experience whisky aromas and flavours without preconceptions.

Mortlach 12yr The Wee Witchie 14 (1oz)

Speyside, 43.4%

The entry point of the Mortlach range, combining both ex-bourbon- and ex-sherry-matured whisky to balance the distillery's traditionally weighty, dried fruit character.

Lagavulin 12yr Natural Cask Strength 28 (1oz)

Islay, 56.8%

Special cask strength release for 2018. Matured in refill American oak hogsheads. Smoke blends with vanilla, green apples, and licorice, plus pepper and sea salt. Peppery, ashy peat and a long finish.

The Balvenie 15yr Single Barrel 36 (1oz)

Speyside, 47.8%

Balvenie haven't often released fully sherry matured whisky. Smooth and complex with clear hints of dried fruit and spice overlaid with a gentle nuttiness that has a long and sherried finish. Each bottle is part of a batch of only a few hundred, each filled from a single cask.

The Glenlivet Single Cask Edition

Sherry Butt Cask $13.27 (1oz)

Speyside, 60.9%

Very rare in quantity and unique in flavour. Aromas of rich homemade plum jam, sweet black cherries and plump raisins perfectly balanced with soft caramel and creamy toffee. The taste is a delightful balance of ripe cherries and luscious blackcurrants, enhanced by notes of creamy vanilla and soft fudge.
